

Art EXPLORER

Bill Woodrow Richard Deacon
Mit Jai Inn

15 September – 21 November 2021

Explore the exhibition by artists
Bill Woodrow and Richard Deacon.

The artists have hidden lots of life forms in their drawings.
Can you find these animals?

What else can you find?
Draw them here.

The ten drawings on the back wall,
titled EACH #1-10 (2020), tell a story like a comic.
Can you write the story below?

Explore the exhibition by artist Mit Jai Inn.

You can touch the silver walls and floors.
How do they feel?

It's important to Mit Jai Inn that you feel like part of his art. How does that make you feel?

What shapes can you see?

What colours can you see?

Find Dream Tunnel (2021).
Imagine the tunnel transports you to a dream land. What does it look like?
Draw your vision for a dream world.

The artist uses silver because in his country, Thailand, people use metal to make lots of important things.

What colour is important to you and why?

Taking part in this Art Explorer activity can contribute towards achieving a Discover Arts Award certificate.

Arts Award is a nationally recognised qualification for young people (aged 5-25), in partnership with Trinity College and supported by Arts Council England.

To achieve a Discover Arts Award certificate you will need to take part in the following activities:

Discover the arts all around you – how many different types of art can you find at Ikon?

Take part in an Ikon Family Saturday.

Share your arts discovery – could you show your teacher or parents what you have made?
